THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Although railroad statistics for the first days of Seppeer from these windows, or before the merry throngs pass through the doorways for receptions, dinners or Meanwhile the attractions of Newport, Lenox, Tuxedo Park, Westchester and Orange will suffice to keep people content until the early part of December. While the rush of life at Newport is past, there is much to make it attractive for some time, the quiet dinners and lnucheons now given being far more enjoyable than in the busy days of August. Last Saturday evening James J. Van Alen gave at Wakehurst a large dinner party, and later in the evening a reception with music. Among the dinner guests were ir Lyon and Lady Playfair, who are visiting at Waltehurst; Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald De Koven, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Sheldon, Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, Goold Redmond and W. A. Wads-The musical part of the evening was connted to by Miss Mary Howe, Miss Edmonds, Regild De Koven and W. J. Lavin. On Sunday night Count Rene La Roulx, who has been for some time at Newport, gave a dinner party at the Casino, having for his guests Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. George Cavendish Bentinok, Miss Post, the Hon. Alan stone, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, jr., Miss Knowlton, R. L. Hargons, Miss Cushing, Victor Sorchan and J. Roman Baldwin.

The incident of this week at Newport will be the wedding of Miss Sallie Jeannette Hargons to Duncan The ceremony will take place on Tuesday at noon, in the Church of All Saints. The wedding breakfast will follow at the Train villa, where Miss Hargons has been passing the summer with her sister, Mrs. George De Forest The invitations to the ecremony have been general. About three hundred people will be at the breakfast, which will be served at small tables by Pinard. The Train villa is small, consequently the plazzas have been extended and closed in with colored glass. Miss Hargons has decided not to have bridesmalds. Her wedding gown is to be of rich white satin, and her veil a remarkable piece point lace, the same which did service at the wedding of her sister, who is now Mrs. William Appleton. The number of wedding gifts thus far received attests to the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Elliot will take a small house in West Thirty-fifth-st. for the winter. Mr. Elliot gave his farewell bachelor linner at the Newport Casino last night.

The next marriage of note will be that of Miss Post to Hamilton Fish Webster at the Episcopal Church, Bellport, L. I., where the bride's stepfather has a country place. The date fixed for the marriage is Thursday, October 1. The invitations to the wedding festivities will be restricted to the nearest relatives and most intimate riends of the pair. Miss Post's only attendants will be her young sisters, the Misses Beatrice and Edith Post, Mr. Webster's best man will be Elisha Dyer, jr., and the ushers will be Dudley Winthrop. Ray Miller, Julian Kean and Kinizing Post, brothe of the bride

The wedding of Miss Mary Adelaide Sloan, daughter of Samuel Sloan, to Francis Colt take place on October 14 at the country place of the bride's father at Garrisons-on-the-Hudson. The following day in Newport Miss Havemeyer will be married to W. Butler Duncan, jr.

The engagement was announced early in the week of Miss La Rocque, a daughter of Joseph La Rocque, to Henry B. Anderson, a son of H. H. Anderson, of Gramercy Park. News cames from England of the engagement of Mrs. Florence Pudelford the divorced wife of E. N. Padelford, and formerly M'ss MacPheeters, of Philadelphia, to the Hon. St John Aubyn, eldest son of Baron St. Levan, a per of England. The engagement is also announced o on, to Pedro de Flores, whose first wife was Mis Minnie Corse.

The first of the Assemblies was held last night i Fefgwick Hall, and as has always been the custon was an early as well as an informal dance. At quarter of an hour before midnight all duncing wa over. The patronesses this year are Mrs. F. Barlow, Mrs. Joseph Burden, Mrs. Henry Barch; Mrs. George Winthrop Folsom, Miss C. Furniss, Mr. R. C. Greenleaf, Mrs. Charles Lanier, Mrs. David Lydig, Mrs. John E. Parsons, Mrs. Asson Phelps Stokes and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, all of whom were present. feature of the week at Lenox will be the po rade of the beat club on Tuesday, an unusual in cident in the history of the place. There are between fifty and sixty craft of various descriptions of the lake, rowboats, canoes and saliboats, all of the fantastic style, to represent different American historical incidents. Dr. Greenleaf, W. D. Sloane, G. G. Haven, J. E. Parsons, A. P. Stokes, I. Percy Mor gan, J. S. Barnes and D. W. B'shop are particularly interested in the welfare of the pande. The boats will start at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and will probably be on the water an bour. Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes has sent out cards for four Friday evening dances, the first of which has already taken place. The last will be given on the October. Mrs. Stokes will have he house filled with young people throughout the month The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Stow Brown to J. Stuart Brown will take place on Saturday, September 19, at the Church of the Messiah, Park-ave, and Thirty-fourth-st. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the pair will be present. The Assemblies will be held in the ballroom of the Madison Square Garden building on January 7 and February 18. The list of patronesses has not yet been announced. There will, however, be a few names added.

Mrs. J. Clinton Gray, now that the gay season is mer at Newport, is holding a series of Monday-evening receptions, at which Mrs. Mand Howe Eliot is giving literary talks. Her subject for to-morrow evening will be "Has America Produced a Poet?" On the other Monday evenings during this month Mrs. Eliot's subjects will be "Russian Literature" and "English Novelists of Today."

ects will be "Russian Literature" and "Engdsh Noveliats of To-day."

The various dancing classes which have met for some years at the Mendelssohn Assembly Rooms will resume their meetings in the same rooms early in December. Mrs. Philip Sands's class will hold its opening meeting in the season on saturday, December 5, and will alternate with that formed by Mrs. F. Le Roy Satteriee, Mrs. John E. Parsons, Mrs. John Erving. Mrs. John E. Parsons, Mrs. John Erving. Mrs. R. M. Hunt, Mrs. Stayvesant Morris and others, Mrs. Worthington's class will meet on Thursday evenings, December 10, January 7, January 21, Pebruary 4 and February 25. The class generally referred to as Mrs. Villard's, though she has retired from active management, will alternate with that of Mrs. Worthington, on Thursday nights. A class under the natronness of Mrs. Charles Stebbins, Mrs. Ruchanas Wiothrop, Mrs. I. Townsend Eurden, Mrs. J. Piorpoont Morgan, Mrs. George Bend, Mrs. H. A. C. Taylor, and Mrs. Henry Clews will meet at Sherry's of Friday nights. The class is intended for debutantes of '90, '91 and '92.

The welding of Miss Ethel Royd to E. G. Onter-

Taylor, and Mrs. Henry Clews will meet at Sherry's on Friday nights. The class is intended for debutantes of '90, '91 and '92. The wedding of Miss Ethel Boyd to E. G. Outerbridge will be an incident of the early fall season on Staten Island. The wedding will take piace on October 27, at St. John's Church, Clifton. This wedding will be of interest to many people in New-York.

A rumor current in Newport for several days that Mrs. Charles I. Livermore is to wed Basron Selliere. of France, is dealed by the lady berself. The presence of Basron Selliere in this country no doubt gave rise to the rumor, as well as the fact that Mrs. Livermore has recently become a convert to the Roman Catholic Church, it is said through the endeavors of the Princess de Sagan, Baron Selliere's sister. This rumor has frequently been dealed by Mrs. Livermore and her freindt. Nexport just now seems to be a place for the dealed of martinonial engagements, amounced by those busylodies who are the base of society. Mr. and Nrs. James P. Kemochan have taken occasion in the hast week at dinner parties and luncheous to deny that their son James L. Kernochan is engaged to a young woman with whose name his has been persistently compled in many printed reports of the summer.

MEET OF THE DUTCHESS HUNT CLUB.

Pouglikeepsie, Sept. 12 (Special).-The first fall meeting of the Dutchess Hunt Club occurred to-day. The meet was at the handsome west entrance to the country home of S. J. Colgate, between Poughkeepsle and New Hamburg. The hounds threw off at 3 p. m. The riders were Miss Barnard, of New-York; Samuel Coland Archibald Rogers and others. The run was over a hilly country, and ended near the Hudson River Driving Park. A large number of society people attended in their carriages. Among them were Mrs. Samuel Colgate and a party of eight; Dr. Guy C. Bayley, of Vassar Brothers' Hospital; Dr. and Mrs. Thompson, of New-York; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Yelverton, Mr. and Mrs. Sands, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roosevelt and daughters, and others. The weather was delightful and the first meet a gratifying success.

ALL PEACEPUL AT THE CASINO.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the New-York Concert Company was held at the Casino yestercay afternoon. The stockholders who were present or were represented by proxies were J. Pierpont organ, Cyrus W. Field, Horace Porter, Austin Corbin, William Rhinelander Stewart, Thomas C. Chauncey M. Depew, U. S. Grant, jr., George J. Gould, I. N. Sellgman, Frank Tilford, George F. Baker, I. Townsend Burden, Llapenard Stewart, Henry Clews, 8. V. R. Cruger, Franklin Edson, H. C. Fahnestock, J. N. A. Griswold, P. F. Gunther, O. H. Havemeyer, John P. Kennedy, Joseph Laroque, Robert E. Roose veld, Robert G. Remsen, Henry E. Russell, William Rhinelander, Edward Schell, C. E. Strong, F. D. Tappen, H. McK. Twombly, G. Mead Tooker, Walter Waison and James Whiteley. The annual report of the treasurer, showing the affairs of the company to be in Although railroad statistics for the first state of the company to be in the show that people are returning to town by the show that people are returning to town by thousands, there is yet no sign of social activity, and the mansions of those famed as leaders in the world of society present a most inhospitable appearance, with follows: Rudolph Aronson, Jefferson M. Finch, Jr., F. H. Kimball, Albert Aronson. After the adjournment of the stockholders' meeting the Board of Directors met and re-elected the officers of last year. These are Rudolph Aronson, president; H. S. Mendelson, vice-president; A. B. de Frece, secretary; and Albert Aronson, treasurer. The entire election was without opposition, and the meeting was altogether one of the most harmonious in the history of the New-York Concert Company and of the

POLITICAL ODDS AND ENDS.

THE MASSACHUSETTS SITUATION.

REPUBLICANS ACTIVELY PREPARING FOR VIC TORY-A SPIRITED CAMPAIGN LIRELY.

Boston, Sept. 12 (Special).-The preliminary work by the Republicans in this campaign has been characterized by a healthy, sound activity. The two leading candidates for the head of the ticket-and, in fact, there have practically been but two men prominently onsidered since Lieutenant-Governor Halle lately declined to run for Governor-have, fortunately for the party, been men of acknowledged business ability, of unquestioned loyalty to the principles of the party, and above reproach socially. Congressman Crapo, of New-Bedford, has been supported by some of the most conservative men in the party, and ex-Congressman Allen has enjoyed the confidence especially of the younger men. So far as it is possible to learn the proferences of the delegates, it appears pretty certain that Mr. Allen leads Mr. Crapo. There are, how-ever, a good many delegates who are unpledged, and whose preferences it is not possible to state. seems likely that Mr. Allen will carry the convention.

The Crapo men, realizing that the success of their candidate was impaired, held a conference yesterday and after discussing the situation sent an address to the delegates setting forth Mr. Crapo's fitness. Senator Hoar, who has been quoted as a supporter of Mr. Crapo, was conspicuous by his absence at this conference. The combat resembles that of two years ago, when Mr. Brackett was pitted against Mr. Crapo and secured the nomination after weeks of exciting

The fall campaign will be unusually interesting and earnest. Governor Russell has not been unmindful of his forces, and has the earnest support of the young Democrats. He will be pitted against an able, lean man, and the nominee of the Republican conention will be supported by a splendidly organized and well equipped young men's Republican club. They will make its influence felt. The convention will be held in Tremont Temple, this city, next Wednesday. It has been the comment on the street for two or three weeks that never before had the Democrats of Boston put so many names on the voting lists so early in a political campaign. While the championship were the Knickerbocker Field Club that is true, it is equally true that the Republican campaign managers have been alive, and realize the necessity of keeping Governor Russell's plurality as | Club of Brooklyn. The score for the first round was ow as possible in Boston.

The receipts at the Collector's office up to the present time have been $9,359 50, as against $2,783 50 for a corresponding period in 1890. An examination of the payments made each day since examination of the payments made each day since they began, August 7, shows that the Republican wards have made as good a record as the Democratic, and that in nearly every case the full poll tax of $2 has been paid by Republicans. The Democrats, on the other hand, are paying divided bills, and one contribution of $4,000 for 4,000 polls is supposed to have come from four colonels on Governor Russell's staff, who are desirous of his re-election. This is probably the first instance where the staff of a Governor have furnished financial aid.

NOMINATED FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 12.—At the Republican Convention for the 1111 Oneida Assembly District, held at Trenton this af poon, Winfield Porter was nom inated for Member of Assembly.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The IId Assembly Dis-trict Republicans of Onondaga County to-day renom-lanted William Kennedy by acclamation.

The Republicans of the 1st Assembly District of Onondaga County to-day nominated David Allen Mon-roe, Jr., of Camillus.

THE NEVADA SENATORSHIP. San Francisco, Sept. 12 (Special).—A lively fight is in progress for the Nevada Senatorship. Senator Will-iam M. Stewart has returned to the coast and is looking after his fences. It is rumored that John W. Mackay would like the honor. State Senator Evan Williams is also a dark horse, and is said to be in the hands of his friends, but cares nothing for the place personally. It probably all depends on his friend, Senator John P

CONTESTING DELEGATIONS FROM ERIE. Democratic State Convention in the districts of the city to-day resulted in two sets of delegates in each district. They are as follows: Ist District-John P. Sullivan, William Hillery and Joseph Whitwell; contestants, William Summers, Frank J. Frantman and James Kennedy; Hd District-Daniel Persons, Frederick F. Kelner and August F. Meyer contestants, Frank M. Gles, James Smith and Matt Endres; Hild District-George Sandrock, George Dittley and John F. Malone; contestants John G. Milburn, William E. Mackey and Norman E. Mack. All burn, William E. Mackey and Norman E. Mack. At these delegates are in favor of Flower for Governor. One set favors William F. Sheelian for Lieutenant Governor, and the other is opposed to him. One set also favors Sheelian for State Committeeman, while the other is for Augustus F. Scheu.

CHICAGO DEMOCRATS IN A PREDICAMENT. Chicago, Sept. 12 (Special).—The Democrats of Chicago are in a sad predicament. They fear to call a convention to nominate county officers, because of the party being divided into two irreconcilable factions, and the leaders had about decided to allow the bosses of the two factions to meet together and nominate a icket between them. It has now been discovered, however, that if the candidates so nominated are elect of, they can not take their seats. The new Ballot law provides that candidates must either be nominated by convention or mass-meeting, and the candidates of a star chamber, council of boxes cannot be reliable. "star chamber" council of bosses cannot be printed on the official ballot. So the Democrats will have to hold a convention, and a Kilkenny time may be expected.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES IN POLITICS. Dubuque, Sept. 12.-Two hundred rallway employes, ostly of the Chicago, Milwankee and St. Paul shops met lest night and organized a local branch of the net last light and organized a local ordanial of Reliway Employes Union. Their object is to oppose candidates favoring hostile legislation toward railronds. The officials say if hostile State legislation is continued wages must be decreased and the forces cut down. It is alleged this has already been done in some instances.

URGING PREE COINAGE IN SAN FRANCISCO. San Francisco, Sept. 12 .- A large mass-meeting was seld at Metropolitan Hall last night in the interest of free collage. Addresses were delivered by Senator Stewart and others. Resolutions were passed in-structing California Representatives in Congress to give carnest support to a free-coinage bill Immediately on the opening of Congress, and demanding that President Harrison sign such bill when passed.

MRS. LIVERMORE'S DENIAL GNLY TECHNICAL. Newport, Sept. 12 (Special).-Last night Mrs. Livernore denied that she was to be married on September 15 in Newport to Baron Sellliere. This was a technical denial. To-night she does not deny the statement that she is to marry the Baron, but she says that the marriage will not take place on the 15th, and that the marriage will not take place on the 15th, and that the ceremony will positively not take place in Newport. She does not consider that her private affairs should be aired in the newspapers, and she deplores publicity. Mrs. Livermore has succeeded in keeping the secret well, hence the cottagers were loth to be lieve the report that she was to be married, and few believe that the report can be true. She will neither affirm nor deav the statement that she is to be married.

MRS. T. C. PLATT NOT ILL.

The report that Mrs. T. C. Platt, who is now in Europe, is ill is erroneous. She simply had an acute attack of asthma, to which she is subject, and went to the seashore at Ostend for relief.

A QUIET DAY FOR THE PRESIDENT. Cape May, N. J., Sept. 12 (Special).-President Harrison remained quietly at the cottage to-day, taking his last Saturday at the seashore as a day of rest. One appointment was made and one pardon was granted.

THE MAYOR AND THE LIQUOR DEALERS. From The Sunday Union and Catholic Times.

From The Sunday Union and Catholic Times.

Those managers of the liquor trade convention, feeling that Protestant and Catholic churches alike, all over the land, have frowned upon their dangerous calling, reloice and are exceedingly glad when they can point to a respectable name, to a high and honored magistrate, such as the Mayor of this great city of New-York, as going into their convention and glying them a formal and public recognition. They considered that they scored a great point for their dignity and prestige in getting Mayor Grant to go to them and speak to them. Perhaps they have.

From the Mayor's point of view of course, it was politics, pure and simple that took him there; whether good or bad politics depends upon whether the liquor trade is so commanding and decisive a power in the politics of the State as it has claimed to be. Is it:

Bainching one thing against another, we submit to the politicians the political importance of the liquor dealers in this State of New-York has been grossly exaggerated.

NEWS OF THE WORLD'S FAIR.

THE NATIONS WHICH HAVE OFFICIALLY AC-CEPTED-EXPOSITION FINANCES.

Chicago, Sept. 12 (Special).-In his report to Diector-General Davis, Chief Fearn, of the Foreign Department, says that the nations which have formally accepted the invitation to participate in the Exposition are France, Spain, Great Britain, Mexico, Colombia, Germany, Peru, China, Venezuela, San Domingo, Chili, Turkey, Persia, Russia, Japan, Januica, Hayti, Slam, Ecuador and Uruguny. The Latin-American Bureau the andlence will be brought into a narrow focus, reports, in addition, the acceptance of the Argentine and bringing the entire audience into pretty Republic, Brazil, Salvador, Guntemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and Costa Rica. But two have declined, first balcony will be scaled with handsome opera chairs and it is noticeable that neither of the countries was were the Netherlands and Egypt, which say that, in such cases, in dustries ought to act independently, consequently the Royal Government is not able to accept the invitation The Government of Egypt, in declining, given it. says that it cannot participate officially, but will aid Egyptian exhibitors in every possible way.

Expert electricians from different parts of the country will soon be called before the World's Fair management, to give their advice as to the best methods of securing an ornamental electrical display on the Ex-position grounds. This course has been determined position grounds. upon by the committee on electricity, which a few weeks ago resolved enlarged powers and authority over electrical matters in connection with the Exposi-tion. Chairman Clowry, of the committee, is industriously at work scheming to bring about the most beautiful results that may be accomplished by electricity.

Exposition finances are in better condition than the Board of Directors had expected. The third call of 20 per cent on the capital stock of $5,000,000 has been issued. It was due on September 1, and on the first three instalments, which should net 83,000,000, $2,857,380 has been collected, so that there remains but $142,620 to be paid in before the Exposition Com-

Harrisburg, Sopt. 12.—Executive Commissioner Benjamin whitman stated to-day that headquarters of the Work's Fair Commission had been regularly opened here, and that all persons desirous of communicating with the office regarding information about exhibits, etc., can now do so.

MISS AVA APPEARS IN CINCINNATI.

HER STORY OF HER ALLEGED ABDUCTION-WHAT FATHER KELLEY SAYS.

Cincinnati, Sept. 12.-The identity of the woman who mysteriously disappeared at the Jesuit College in Chi-cago on Wednesday night with the one who as mysterisusly appeared last night in this city at Klayer's drugstore is fully established by a description of her given to day by Mrs. Bolton, of Chicago. There is the deep sear under the left eye, the growth of hair on a fight mole, the blue eyes, and the entire description closely corresponds. The woman was taken before Colonel Hazen, of the police force, this morning. Finding no cause for holding her, he directed that she be taken back to the House of Detention to await some action by her friends. The following is her story as told to the superintendent of police:

"Last Wednesday I called on Archbishop Fechan in Chicago in reference to my renouncing the work I had been engaged in for years, and after an unsatisfactory interview he asked me to go to the Church of the Holy 'amily, Father Kelley's church, as the council would meet there that evening. I persuaded Mrs. Bolton, wife of the minister of Centenary Methodist Church, to accompany me, and without changing the horses in my carriage (my own carriage and horses) we drove immediately to Father Kelley's church, arriving there at 6:15 o'clock. I stepped into Father Kelley's study and there found the conneil in session. There were eight or nine of them, and among them were Father Fitzgerald and Chancellor Muldoon; the others I did not recognize. After a recapitulation of the old business I was asked to renounce my mission business and the faith of Dr. Bolton's religion, Methodism, and I was given the ultimatum of doing this or taking the con

"Then Father Kelley said: 'Do your duty,' and two big strong men, one of them Father Fitzgerald, seized me and threw a cloak over my head, after which I remembered nothing until I found myself in Cincinnati. They say I went into the church to pray, do they? Any one who knows anything about this church will know that I could not go from Father reformation of destitute and fallen women."

"What about her having property in the hands of the Catholic Church!"

"She never mentioned such a thing, but spoke of having enormous wealth of her own. She said she had been a num. She struck one as being a remarkable character. She could talk an any subject, and her knowledge seemed world-wide."

Father Kelley says he has a witness who saw Miss Ava enter the church from the side door, and pass immediately out at the front door, carrying the bag in which her money and jewels were. Another person saw her get into a carriage, which was waiting for her around the corner, and drive away.

OBITUARY.

GILBERT E. THORNTON, U. S. NAVY. Pay Director Gilbert E. Thornton, of the Navy. who has been in charge of the Navy Pay Office in this city since May, 1890, died at the Adams House, Boston, early yesterday morning. His general condition of health, resulting from a severe attack of the grip several months ago, has been of so serious a nature as to cause much apprehension, especially during the last three months. He leaves a wife only. his daughter, an only child, having died some time ago. He had rooms at the Grand Hotel in this city. where he and his wife made their home.

Pay Director Thornton was born in this city in 1839, and he was appointed assistant paymaster in the Navy from Massachusetts on September 6, 1861, and the following two years he served on the sailing sloop-of-war Brandywine, the storeship of the North Atlantic Squadron. He was then transferred to the frigate Sabine, and a year afterward was sent to the steam sloop-of-war Brooklyn, then in Admiral Farragut's Mobile Bay Squadron. Soon after the close of the war, and after the Norfolk Navy Yard had been recaptured, Paymaster Thornton was detailed as in spector of provisions, etc., at that yard, remaining there until early in 1868, when he became storekeeper at the Naval Academy for a year. In 1869 he was appointed fleet paymaster of the South Atlantic Squadron, remaining there three years, being pro moted to the grade of pay inspector in the while, on October 14, 1871.

For the next six years he was in charge of the Navy Pay Office at Washington and at Hosion, serving three years at each. In 1875 he became fleet paymaster of the Asiatic Squadron, where he served two years, and then was ordered back to the Navy Pay years, and then was ordered acak to the Navy Fay.

Office at Roston, where he remained three years. He was promoted to pay director on May 29, 1882. From 1884 to 1886 he was inspector of provisions at the Boston Navy Yard, and then was made general store-keeper, remaining a year longer. For three years following he was in charge of the Navy Pay Office at Washington, and then was sett to duty in this city. The burial will take place at New-Bedford, Mass.

ROBERT T. S. LOWELL.

Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 12.-Dr. Robert Trail Spence Lowell died at his home in this city this morning aged seventy-four years. He was a brother of the late James Russell Lowell, and was an author and writer of note.

BOSTON THEATEES.

TEN PLAYHOUSES CONTRIBUTE TO THE AMUSE-MENT OF THE PUBLIC-THE NEW COLUMBIA.

Boston, Sept. 12 (Special).-Boston will soon have ten regular theatres running, besides several dime seums. The two latest additions to the list will be the Columbia and the Bowdoin Square, both of which are nearly completed. The Columbia will open its doors in a few days, probably before October 1, and some way on September 21. The proprietors are William Harris and Charles Atkinson. Mr. Harris is at present running the Howard Athenaeum, and Mr. Atkinson is to control the Bowdoin Square. The Columbia is in Washington-st., occupying the block from No. 978 to No. 986 inclusive, a short distance from Dover-st. It follows the Moorish style of architecture. The front is of pressed brick and terra-cotta. The architect has taken the Albambra as his ideal, for the construction of the Columbia, both exterior and interior. A large balcony extends entirely across the Washington-st. front, and from this a broad staircase leads to the balcony. inlaid with fantastic tiling. From the second floor lobby the view is charming. The decorations are quiet in color, and on this floor, but throughout the theatre. lobby is large enough to accommodate all who may be in the balcony circle; while magnificent furniture and costly russ will be scattered about in every direction. To the right and left are large doors leading to the gallery staircase. will seat 400, the gallery above 800, and the parquet 750, making about 2,000 in all The pitch of the balcony and gallery is so sharp close range from the stage. The orchestra floor and uphoistered in plush. In the gallery the first six rows are to be opera chairs, the remainder setters. The relief work, and the entire decorations are in good taste. The colors are subdued, buff, cream and salmon being the prevailing tints, while gold bronze is used to give relief and tone to the coloring.

On the first floor is a ladles' parlor, handsomely decorated and hazurlously furnished, and the retiring-rooms are provided with hot and cold water and every convenience. Under this room, and extending beneath the lobby is the gentlemen's smoking-room. The floor is tiled, and the furniture is upholstered in leather. The manager's business office is on the first floor at the Washington-st. corner.

The stage is large and well appointed. It measures seventy-five feet from the floor of the stage to the grid The gas table for all the gaslights in the hon controls about 800 burners. The Kalping Raliway, which was first opened for carrying coals, has now developed into a very large concern, and it may almost be said that the whole welfare of the adjacent country depends on it. The length of the completed line is little more than 200 H, but, we learn from native sources, the company are now extending their fine considerably. Last year the company extended the line from Tongshan to Kooyar, which section will be purely a mercantile concern and free from Government control. In the spring the floard of Admirally memorialized the Throne for permission to tuild a rallroad from Kooyar to Shan-hallwan, which petition was duly sanctioned by the Emperor, who has now applanted Li Hung Chans, Superintendent of Northern Trade, to be director general of the new line; Yu, the Tariar General at Monadea, and Cheng, the Tariar General at Monadea, and Cheng, the Tariar General at Monadea, and Cheng the Tariar General at Monadea kelley's study into the church."

HER PRACTICAL ADHESION TO LORD SALIS-

BURY'S EASTERN POLICY.

CONTINUOUS SUCCESS OF FRANCO-RUSSIAN DIPLO-MACY IN TURKEY-EMPEROR WILLIAM'S SIGNIFICANT SPEECH AT CASSEL-THE PRESIDENTE PINTO.

Copyright: 1891; By The New-York Associated Press Berlin, Sept. 12 .- The leading political developme f the week has been the practical adhesion of the italian Prime Minister, the Marquis di Rudini, to the policy of Lord Salisbury. The Sultan of Turkey's new blas in the direction of favoring Russia, as instanced in the Dardanelles affair, will now have to bear the weight of the counter-influence of Austria and Italy, and probably Germany, for it is stated that Herr von Radowitz, the German Ambassador to the Porte, at an andience with the Sultan on Wednesday urged that a favorable hearing be given to the view of Great Britain, and that through his representations sir William White, the British Ambassador to Turkey, had an audience with the Sultan yesterday. The gravity of the situation is indicated in the summons calling the envoys of the Porte at Vienna, Berlin, St. Petersburg and London to Constantinople. The French Ambassador, the Count of Montebello, who was on the eve of presenting his letters of recall to the Sultan, has been instructed by his Government to remain at his post in order to prevent the Sultan, under the pressure of other diplomats, from weakening and breaking his resolutions.

the continuous success of Franco-Russian diplomacy in Turkey. The Sultan has offered a place in the Ministry to Chakir Pacha, a declared partisan of a Russian alliance, and known to be a foe of England

The Foreign Office here regards England's difficulty with complacency. Lord Salisbury's solicitation for diplomatic ald forces England into closer union with the Triple Alliance, and thus tends in the direction of bringing about a formal compact between England and Germany, Austria and Italy,

THE KAISER'S UTTERANCES AT CASSEL.

There was a parade to-day of all the troops stationed in the Cassel District, which afforded a brilliant spectacle. The Emperor and Empress, the King of Saxony, the Grand Duke of Hesse, the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, the Duke of Edinburgh, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Prince Albrecht, and others of high rank were present. Emperor William will now go to Erfurt, where he will review the Fourth Army Corps. Some of the phrases used by His Majesty in his speech at the banquet at Cassel, have added to the uneasiness which now prevails throughout the courtry. He recalled the time when, as a staff officer, he entered Cassel in 1871, with the victorious Hessian troops. He trusted, he said, that the Hessians, in the event of foreign struggles, would help him to fulfil his duties. Coming so soon after the allusions made at Munich to the future triumphs of the Bavarian troops, His Majesty's utterance at Cassel is felt to be a veiled menace to foreign enemies and a warning for the country to prepare courageously for trouble. Still, the conviction remains unshaken in official circles that a prolonged period of diplomatic intrigue will precede a collision of the Powers. The Munich "Tageblatt" denies the official statement that Emperor William had an enthusiastic reception on the occasion of his late visit to the Bavarian capital. On the contrary, it says, he was received with chilly indifference by the people. It attributes this to the fact that the people of Bavaria see in the Emperor an emblem of dearness of living and the source of an aproaching war, threatening the ruln of the country.

THE PRESIDENTE PINTO'S CREW MUTINOUS. The Chillan warship Presidente Pinto, which has caused uneasiness to several of the Powers by her attempts to procure arms, is lying at Hamburg with her erew mutinous. Her commander asked the assistance of the police to arrest three sellors, but as the vessel belongs to a foreign Power, the police Microed the request to the Senate.

A TRAGEDIAN'S TROUBLES.

Kainz, the tragedian, who has been engaged to perform in New-York this winter, broke his contract with Director Barnay last year, and was condemned t $5,000 damages. When Herr Barnay heard that Kainz was about to leave Germany he applied for an order from the courts to restrain him. Kainz, however, made his way out of the country, but in so doing he lost a farewell benefit performance.

HIS REAL ESTATE "EXCHANGE" DESERTED IN A HURRY-CREDITORS LOOKING FOR HIM.

An attractive buit has been offered to many farmer turing the last month by a man who has in that short period established an unenviable reputation for financial shortcomings and has shown a peculiar ability as a lightning change artist. This wonderful peson has in the short period of thirty days masqueraded under the names of Duffy, Wallace & Co., Snyder and

About August 1 this man of many names opened a real-estate "exchange" at No. 246 East Forty-sixth-st. When the man rented a store and living rooms on the ground floor of this building he sold his name was Duffy. A few days afterward he hung out a sign on which was painted the name "Wallace & Co." Mr. Duffy, or "Wallace & Co.," inserted advertisements in several papers in which it was said that a gentle-man wanted to purchose a farm for cash. The advertisement was signed "Snyder," and a cigar-store address was given.

Of course every farmer who saw the advertisement and had a tract of land he wished to dispose of for cash answered the advertisement. Every farmer who anwered the advertisement received an answer by return mail, written on an elaborate letter head on which was printed the following solid-looking firm name and address: "Office of Glbson & Co., Real Estate, Financial and Business Exchange, Commercial Bank Build-On this letter-head was a typewritten letter in which it was stated that on receipt of $10 as a guarantee of good faith, Gibson & Co. would send their representative to inspect the premises. SAILED FOR FRANCE WITHOUT HIS BEAR.

A fine brown bear about five years old was added to the collection of animals in Central Park Menagerie yesierday without any expense to the city. John P. Halnes, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and James Dubois, of No. 23 1-2 South Fifth-ave., were responsible for this addition to the menagerie.

During the last four years Pierre Fayard, . Frenchman, has tramped from the Atlantic to the Pacific with this tame bear. Two years ago when he reached the Rocky Mountains he bought a young grizzly bear, and since then he has taken both animals with him from place to place. He returned to New-York few days ago, and yesterday sailed for France on the French steamship La Touraine. Fayard took the young grizzly back to France, leaving the ordinary French bear behind, chained to a post in the court in the rear of Dubois's place in South Fifth-ave.

The animal frightened Dubois, who offered him to Mr. Haines, and he informed Superintendent Conklin, who had the animal removed to the Menagerie in the Park.
